Breaking News

Dear Friends

I received this update from Wendi this afternoon.

"Hey Barb! I wanted to send you a little note to pass on to the congregation that I am doing much better. I am so grateful to have been amongst my family and friends during this ordeal and very thankful to everyone who was there to help me. I do not have much memory of what exactly happened but I do know that I could feel prayers and believe without a doubt they helped me tremendously! To help explain what transpired, I experienced an episode of vasovagal syncope. My heart rate dropped along with my blood pressure which caused my body to react the way that it did. This occurs when the body gets to dehydrated. Once I got to the hospital and all the tests were run that ruled out any heart problems, I was pumped full with fluids and was much better. Barb, I would like thank you for the special prayer that you said, It was very good for me. Debra and MJ, I am most grateful you were there and knew exactly what to do. Please know that I could hear you talking me and that helped me a lot! Kelly, I am really thankful that you took care of Taylor. It really eased her mind. Thanks to Margaret, Trish, and Laretta for sitting with me at the hospital And to everyone else, again I am just grateful for the prayers and concerns. This congregation never ceases to amaze me! God Bless, Wendi."

Blessings and Peace
Barbara
